

WATER WISE TREES

INNOVATIVE TREE PLANTING TRIALS TO IMPROVE THE HEALTH OF STREET TREES

Council is undertaking a trial in Barrow Street, Brunswick for harvesting rainwater runoff from our streets in the best possible way to enhance the growth of street trees

Five different designs are being trialled that vary the type of soil the tree is planted in, connection to drainage and where the tree is planted.

The first result of this experiment will be available in 12 months time.

For more information go to our website: moreland.vic.gov.au